PUBLIC REPRESENTATIVE COMMENTS ON
POSTAL SERVICE REQUEST TO ADD
PRIORITY MAIL CONTRACT 79 TO COMPETITIVE PRODUCT LIST

(March 6, 2014)

The Public Representative hereby provides comments pursuant to Order No. 2001.¹ In that Order, the Commission established the above referenced docket to receive comments from interested persons, including the undersigned Public Representative, on a Postal Service Request to add Priority Mail Contract 79 to the competitive product list.²

The Postal Service's Request includes a Statement of Supporting Justification, a certification of compliance with 39 U.S.C. § 3633(a), a redacted copy of Governor's Decision No. 11-6, and proposed changes to the Mail Classification Schedule competitive product list with the addition underlined. The Postal Service also filed (under seal) a contract related to the proposed new product and supporting financial data.

² Request of the United States Postal Service to Add Priority Mail Contract 72 to the Competitive Product List and Notice of Filing (Under Seal) of Unredacted Governors' Decision, Contract, and Supporting Data, December 9, 2013 (Request).

According to the Postal Service, Priority Mail Contract 79 is a competitive product “not of general applicability” within the meaning of 39 U.S.C. § 3632(b)(3). Request at 1. The Postal Service also maintains that the prices and classification underlying the instant contract are supported by Governors’ Decision No. 11-6.³ The Postal Service further asserts that the Statement of Supporting Justification (Statement) provides support for adding Priority Mail Contract 72 to the competitive product list and the compliance of the instant contract with 39 U.S.C. § 3633(a). Request at 2; Id., Attachment D.

The effective date for Priority Mail Contract 72 is the day following the date on which the Commission issues all necessary regulatory approvals. Id., Attachment B at 2. The contract is scheduled to expire 3 years from the effective date unless either party terminates the contract on 30 days’ prior written notification, or other specific events. Id.

COMMENTS

The Public Representative has reviewed the instant contract, the Statement of Supporting Justification, and the financial data filed under seal that accompanies the Postal Service’s Request. Based upon that review, the Public Representative concludes that Priority Mail Contract 79 should be categorized as a competitive product and added to the competitive product list. In addition, it appears that the instant contract in the first year should generate sufficient revenues to cover costs and thereby satisfy 39 U.S.C. § 3633(a).

Product List Assignment. Pursuant to 39 U.S.C. § 3642, the Postal Service requests that Priority Mail Contract 79 be added to the competitive product list. 39 U.S.C. § 3642 requires the Commission to consider whether “the Postal Service exercises sufficient market power that it can effectively set the price of such product substantially above costs, raise prices significantly, decrease quality, or decrease output, without risk of losing a significant level of business to other firms offering similar products.” 39 U.S.C. § 3642(b)(1). Products over which the Postal Service exercises such power are categorized as market dominant while all others are categorized as competitive.

The Postal Service’s Statement of Supporting Justification makes a number of assertions that address the considerations of section 3642(b)(1). Request, Attachment D at 2. These assertions appear reasonable. Based upon the Statement, the Public Representative concludes that the Postal Service’s Request to add Priority Mail Contract 72 to the competitive product list is appropriate.

Requirements of 39 U.S.C. § 3633. Pursuant to 39 U.S.C. § 3633(a), the Postal Service’s competitive prices must not result in the subsidization of competitive products by market dominant products; and, must ensure that each competitive product will cover its attributable costs, and that all competitive products collectively contribute an appropriate share of the institutional costs of the Postal Service. Based upon a review of the financial data, the negotiated prices should generate sufficient revenues to cover costs during the first year of the contract.

However, the Postal Service provides no data to demonstrate that the instant contract will comply with 39 U.S.C. § 3633(a) during the entire three-year period of the contract. This concern is somewhat mitigated by the fact that the terms of the instant contract provide a formula for an annual adjustment in the negotiated prices that should permit revenues to cover cost during years 2 and 3. Consequently, the best that can be said is that the instant contract satisfies section 3633(a) during the first year. Of course, the Commission has an opportunity to review the instant contract’s financial results for compliance with 39 U.S.C. § 3633(a) each year in the Annual Compliance Determination.

The Public Representative respectfully submits the foregoing comments for the Commission's consideration.
